- Represent TIN in a customer-focused fashion by returning calls promptly, searching for answers and additional resources when necessary, taking initiative to solve problems, or requesting necessary assistance.
- Cultivate new relationships with potential clients and negotiate contracts as needed.
- Respond to all billing and performance disputes and concerns.

Management and Supervision (40%):
- Recruit TIN staff and contract interpreters.
- Train, lead, and supervise TIN staff.
- Implement orientations and training for new staff and interpreters, and provide professional development opportunities for staff and interpreters.
- Oversee all aspects of budget, project development, implementation and follow-up.
- Create quarterly reports for executive team and board.
- Coordinate with Accounting Manager on payables and receivables, reviewing monthly reports for complete accounting accuracy.
- Analyze TIN statistics and trends, and update executive team.

Marketing (25%):
• Conduct market research and help develop an annual marketing plan for interpretation and translation services, as well as interpreter training.
• Remain current with research findings, trends, and data available making use of “best practices” for interpreter agencies.
